Hello and a very warm welcome to you all and thank you for taking the time to look at our annual Carleen Pantomime which this year is Snow White and the 9 Dwarfs This will be our seventh Pantomime. Over the years we have seen cast members of all ages progress and move on to other pastures, but of course many of the youngsters have stayed with the group and developed into fine responsible individuals. The aim of this group is to encourage local youngsters to take part in this activity which gives them self-confidence, self-esteem, a sense of purpose and of course a job well done. A pantomime like this requires a lot of hard work and dedication from a large number of people who give up much of their spare time to bring the pantomime from script to action. Most of these folk are never seen so I would like to thank them all for their sterling efforts. It has been fun to work with everyone and nice to see some new faces as well as some old stagers. Hopefully the newcomers will enjoy the experience and return for next year's production. A special thank to this year's producer John Keeling. John has picked up the reigns from Terry Darby who has passed valuable information onto John who now realises just how, although small, hard working and effective the team is. Dedication, hours of hard work and perseverance are required by actors, stagehands and backroom staff alike, of whom there are many. My eternal thanks go out to them all. We are always looking to welcome anyone who would like to join our group in whatever capacity, i.e. costumes, makeup, stage-hands including props, scenery artists, lighting and sound engineers to name but a few of essential personnel, and not forgetting the main players such as Producer, Director and Dance Choreographer. This group is like a well-oiled machine: one section will not work without the other, so all participants are equally important. In conclusion I would ask you to just sit back enjoy the show and remember it is a pantomime so audience participation is expected and welcomed! Come on this journey of fairyland and let your imagination run riot, but don't forget - it's behind you!!

We look forward to seeing you at Carleen Village Hall to see our latest pantomime production of Snow White.
